A HEARTWARMING TALE OF INTERGENERATIONAL CONNECTIONS

Miravida Living was buzzing with warmth and connection as students from the Academy for Global Studies at Oshkosh West High School were welcomed to the Carmel Residence dining room. The generations came together over a delicious breakfast, sparking wonderful conversations.

What began as a field trip soon grew into so much more—a heartwarming tale of intergenerational connection and meaningful bonds. Students fully embraced the Miravida Living community, immersing themselves in the captivating journey of identity formation. As they listened to the life stories of our beloved elders, they gained invaluable wisdom and forged profound connections. What started as a simple excursion has blossomed into a cherished memory.

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to all who played a part in making this incredible day possible, for your contributions have woven beautifully into the vibrant tapestry of our Miravida Living community!

The story didn't end there. Less than a week later, two of the students paid Nathalie Moore from Carmel Residence a visit, bearing thoughtful gifts as tokens of their gratitude. During the event, Nathalie shared her regret about not finishing college to become a teacher. In their note, the students included a heartfelt message: "Thank you for being the best teacher, even though you may not realize it," along with a thoughtful gift—a "Best Teacher Ever" mug. This heartwarming gesture beautifully underscores the enduring impact of this special day.

Community Church Oshkosh's talented kids brought creativity to our sidewalks, while residents had the best seat in the house.

Residents of Carmel Residence and Simeanna Apartments enjoyed a beautiful day in Waupaca with lunch and a eight lake tour.

The scent of spices, the oven's warmth, and shared laughter fill the hearts of Elijah's Place residents as they unite in baking.

TRADITION ENDURES WHEREVER LIFE LEADS

Aggie, a recent resident of Gabriel's Villa, has proven the warmth of family traditions can thrive regardless of the surroundings. For over 25 years, Aggie has been a dedicated baker, crafting her signature pistachio bread with love and care, and gifting it to her cherished family and friends every Christmas. When she made the transition to Gabriel's Villa, her commitment to this beloved tradition remained steadfast.

With the assistance of her friend Diane and Gabriel's Villa team members Molly, Tracy, and Ann, Aggie embarked on a heartwarming baking adventure. Together, they worked tirelessly to produce a remarkable 43 small loaves and 19 large loaves of her famous pistachio bread.
